

Continuum of Family Engagement Practices for the Parent or Guardian

Not Engaged	A Little Engaged	Somewhat Engaged	Highly Engaged
1. Does not come to the center to pick up/drop off child 2. Does not interact with child's teacher or program staff 3. Does not participate in program events, parent education opportunities, and center activities 4. Does not participate in parent teacher conferences 5. Family does not use resources like lending libraries & "homework" type activities to reinforce home learning	1. Comes to the center to pick up/drop off child occasionally 2. Interacts with child's teacher and program staff occasionally either face to face or via email or other methods 3. Participates in at least 1 program event, parent education opportunity or center activity per year 4. Participates in 1 parent teacher conference per year 5. Family takes home resources like lending library materials & "homework" type activities to reinforce home learning, but doesn't use them	1. Comes to the center to pick up/drop off child 2-3 times per week 2. Interacts with child's teacher and program staff several times a week either face to face or via email or other methods 3. Participates in at least 3 program events, parent education opportunities or center activities per year 4. Participates in 2 parent teacher conference per year 5. Family takes home resources like lending library materials & "homework" type activities to reinforce home learning, and uses them occasionally	1. Comes to the center to pick up/drop off child 4-5 times per week 2. Interacts with child's teacher and program staff daily either face to face or via email or other methods 3. Participates in at least 5 program events, parent education opportunities, or center activities per year 4. Participates in 3 parent teacher conference per year 5. Family takes home resources like lending library materials & "homework" type activities to reinforce home learning, and uses them regularly with their child